

BPS RETROSPECT

Issue 73; April to July 2022

Editorial

Hope is a state of mind where you can cherish a desire or an expectation of positive outcome in one's life. Professor of psychology Barbara Fredrickson says that hope comes into its own, when there is crisis and throws doors open for new creative possibilities. It also reflects positive emotions such as joy, courage and happiness. This is the strength of all BPS students.

Hope is also linked to mental will power and approaching life in a goal-oriented way. It is a cognitive skill that helps an individual's ability to pursue a particular goal.

The students of BPS have clear goals in their minds, after the pandemic situation, which had shaken them physically, mentally and psychologically. They have come out of the situation by participating in different activities like Round Square, Godhuli, Painting, Writing Competitions with new spirits and enthusiasm and also visited Birla Museum and Pahari Mandir. They came out with flying colours when CBSE declared Class X & XII results.

We are sailing under able guidance of our School Principal, who is a great optimist and hopeful of taking the best path, when facing obstacles like the pandemic.
